

LOCATION & REGISTRATION

Invincible's training courses take place at The Møller Centre, which is part of Churchill College, University of Cambridge.

The award-winning Møller Centre is a purpose-designed, dedicated residential conference and training venue offering high quality continuing professional development.

The Møller Centre has state of the art meeting facilities, which ensures that you are able to fully concentrate on your course. There is plenty of scope for relaxation as the Centre has modern, air-conditioned, en-suite bedrooms, which overlook the extensive grounds. There is a fitness suite, squash and tennis courts on site, with additional sporting and leisure options within short distance.

The University of Cambridge celebrated its 800th year in 2009, and is one of the foremost Universities in the world. The city of Cambridge is a vibrant mix of the old and new, with many museums, art galleries, theatres and restaurants.
